Next Steps

Next Steps is a free program for women in business looking to succeed in occupations such as sales, bookkeeping, project management, or administrative roles, who face multiple barriers to joining the job market.

What you will gain

- Financial Support: Get the resources you need to focus on your career
- Tailored Training for each cohort: Equip yourself with hard and soft skills in sales, bookkeeping, project management, or administrative roles
- Personalized Guidance: Benefit from one-on-one mentoring for three months
- Transportation Assistance: We help you get to work and in-person classes by providing reimbursement to your compass card
- Cultural Awareness: Embrace diversity, gain a sense of belonging, and improve your mental well-being

Eligibility

- A woman
- Facing two or more barriers to employment
- Unemployed or Employed Part-Time
- Not receiving financial supports from similar provincially or federally funded labour market program
- Legally entitled to work in Canada (work permit conditions may restrict participation)
- Living in British Columbia
- Available full-time
- Not a full-time student
